—Remember Mr. A. F. Smith gives two exhibitions at the rink next Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

—The Williams homestead at Madison street, is for rent, furnished or unfurnished. Inquire of Valentine Bros.

—The family of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Stoddard, North bluff street, has been increased by another little girl baby.

—Mrs. J. M. Pool and her son, Marvin, who have been spending the winter in South Carolina, returned home yesterday.

—The extensive book establishment of James Sullivan & Sons, have been awarded the contract to furnish the supply in the public schools.

—Mr. F. W. Guernsey, formerly of this city, but late of La Mars, Iowa, has returned to Winfield, Nebraska, and entered the banking business.

—Miss Katie Scofield, of West Union, Iowa, is spending several weeks with her cousins, Misses Jessie and Belle Dearborn, Rock street, Fourth ward.

—The Concordia society will give one of their popular dances at Concordia hall Tuesday evening May 5th. A cordial invitation is extended to the public. Prices as usual.

—Mr. W. H. Lake, son-in-law of Mr. G. Voeder, of this city, died at Jacksonville, Florida, on April 28th. His remains will be brought to Clinton, Wis., his home for burial.

—The cold weather of last night and the night before has put tobacco growers, in some sections of the country to considerable trouble, as quite a few of the early plant beds were destroyed.

—Mr. A. F. Smith has a standing challenge out to state any one in the United States for rent from $500 to $1,000, and has never had even a hint of its being accepted. See him at the rink next Wednesday and Thursday.

—Dr. E. P. Miller & Co., of Chicago, have rented rooms at No. 19 West Milwaukee street, over J. L. Ford's clothing store, and will open an office the first of next week for the cure of diseases, by the compound oxygen treatment.

—The homestead of Mrs. Mary E. Smith, on Madison street, has been sold to Mr. R. J. Koot, the purchase price being $2,150. The sale was negotiated by our city real estate dealer, C. E. Bowles.

—One drunk was brought into the municipal court this afternoon, and pleaded guilty—fine three dollars and costs—total $6.95, and to be confined in the county jail one day, in default of payment of fine and costs, five days longer at the jail.

—Rev. E. B. Welles, S. P. D. bishop of the diocese of Wisconsin, will make his annual visitation to the parishes in this city to-morrow. He will be at St. Peter's church at 10:30 a. m., and will celebrate the Holy Communion and administer the rite of confirmation.

—Ald. Ben George is having twelve rods of concrete sidewalk put down in front of his Jackson street residence. Mr. I. C. Brownell will follow with four rods, and Mr. Ellis Stappell in front of his Milwaukee avenue home. Mr. Haskiey is doing the work.

—The Madison Journal: "Mr. Geo. F. Wentworth, train-master of the Madison division of the Northwestern road, has tendered his resignation to the company and removed to his fine farm near Janesville. He was formerly located in this city as train-dispatcher."

—The removal of the awning in front of the Myers house has greatly improved the appearance of the building and the stores which it decked. If other business men would follow the example of Mr. Myers, the appearance of our streets would be correspondingly improved in appearance.

—Bread, buns, rusks, cakes and pies, delivered at private residences, in any part of the city, by Boston Bakery, 59 North Main street. On Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays, orders left at the bakery or by postal card, will receive prompt attention. Boston brown bread every Friday; coffee cakes, Saturdays.

—Dr. Henry Palmer, who occupies the chair of operative and clinical surgery in the college of physicians and surgeons, Chicago, Ill., and who has been on duty at that institution regularly every Wednesday since September last, has closed his labors there this week and will be in this city instead of Chicago on Wednesday, until September next.

—Yesterday the river banks were lined with men and boys with fish poles, hooks and lines, baited for bass, pike, pickerel, and anything excepting red hore and suckers. At night fall young John Behrmdt appeared to be the champion fisherman, as he had more than his full quota of fine bass and pike, to whom we return thanks for a "fine string."

—The streets have been quite lively to-day, and the four and six-horse teams belonging to the Burr Robbins' grand railway show, have been constantly passing from Spring Brook to the depot, loading the paraphernalia of the circus and menagerie on the cars. To-morrow the great show will leave this city for Beloit, where they make the first stand on Monday. The stock and animals are all in good condition, and we have every reason to believe that Colonel Robbins will give the public more than their money's worth in genuine amusement, saying nothing of the rare collection of natural curiosities connected with the menagerie and museum.

—News reaches us that Mr. Clark Son, an old and prominent citizen of Edgerton, and for a long time express agent at that place, was found dead in bed this morning. Mr. Son retired last evening in his usual good health, and nothing was heard, or known of his death, until found this morning. He was about 60 years of age and leaves a wife and family of several adult children. He was a prominent member of the Masonic and Odd Fellows societies of Edgerton, and a member of the encampment branch of Odd Fellows. The funeral will take place at Edgerton at one o'clock on Monday afternoon, the Masons and Odd Fellows attending in a body, many members of the latter order will attend from this city, wearing the uniform of the order.

—There were two deaths from scarlet fever in this city last night. At eight o'clock Jack Sanborn, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Sanborn, closed his eyes and quietly fell asleep, and this morning Helen M., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cheney, departed this life to meet her younger sister who fell a victim to the dread disease only a few days ago. Both funerals were held at two o'clock this afternoon, and the remains were buried in Oak Hill cemetery. This affliction, coming as it does to Mr. and Mrs. Cheney, so soon after parting with their little daughter on Sunday last, is doubly sad, and they will have the sympathy of all. Although this is the first time the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sanborn has been visited by death, they will nevertheless receive the deepest sympathy of the community.

—Some amateur politicians, who have not yet decided upon which side of the house they will take seats, are croaking over the result of the ballot for street commissioner in the common council on Thursday evening, and are wondering why it was that four republican members did not elect a good republican, when there were six democratic votes against them. "Old liners" could easily see through the fence, and learning the plans of the six democrats, who were somewhat rattled, concluded that the only thing for them to do was to "down democratic bossism" in city affairs, and the four republican aldermen, seeing their opportunity, were not slow in acting. They cast their votes accordingly, and the people on now rest assured that there will be no bossism or "ring" in the management of our street and ward affairs. The four republicans and the two democrats will stay together on this point, and see to it that no one alderman dictates how and by whom every thing shall be done. The republican aldermen did the best they could to elect their man, failing, they dropped their votes to break a "ring," in which they succeeded.

—Our new street commissioner, Mr. John Cunningham, of the second ward, will enter upon his duties as such on Tuesday morning next should his bond be approved by the common council.

Mr. Cunningham is fifty-four years of age, and came to this country in 1859, from Ireland, and settled in Janesville in 1855, where he has since resided. In Ireland he was connected with the government survey, but on coming to America, and for many years after taking up his residence in Janesville, he engaged in the peddling business. He is a hard working, industrious man, and well posted in public affairs. Having known him for years, we have no doubt he will make a popular and efficient street commissioner, and one whom the council and the people will be satisfied with. Of course, Mr. Cunningham was not the first choice of the party or combination that elected him, but being the lucky person drawn into official position by a political combination, this action will be doubly watched by the public, but we confidently believe he will prove equal to the task before him, and that all will be satisfied.

—Letters and Circulars.

It would astonish many people, who are not familiar with public affairs, to see the enormous correspondence sometimes piled up before a public officer, especially if such officer happens to be in a position where his influence is of the least value in awarding contracts, etc. Some time ago, when the repairing of the Milwaukee street bridge was being agitated, someone suggested an item that it would be a good thing to build an iron bridge in place of the old pile structure. That item traveled the rounds like many other little suggestions often found in the papers, and at each successive stopping place was magnified, until it was announced that the city of Janesville had concluded to build a modern and substantial iron bridge. City Clerk Churchill has received many letters of inquiry on the subject, from parties engaged in iron bridge building, and yesterday he received the following from a Chicago firm:

DEAR SIR: We notice by the American Engineer, of April 23, that there is to be an iron bridge built for your city, crossing Rock Street. We have been not been contracted for we should be pleased to submit a proposal for it. Will you please furnish us with the necessary plans and specifications, or if you require tenders to furnish the same, please send us to so kind as to furnish the necessary data, i. e. length of structure, height above water, how supported at either end, etc.

Of course this, as well as many other similar letters require answering, which takes time, patience and postage stamps. We know of another official, who has been in office a little over a month, yet he has already received a bushel basket full of circulars and letters recommending various in his business, and still they come.

Two other morning we entered the postoffice in company with one of the city school commissioners, and as he opened his lock box, for his mail, he remarked—"look here, this circular business is getting to be a regular nuisance," and he took from his box half a dozen or more printed circulars in envelopes, all relating to public school books. We requested the commissioner to wait a moment, until we opened our box, which he did, and pulling the little door open we found the box piled full of circulars from fire department supply houses, representing every conceivable kind in line, and at the bottom of the box, we found a little card with "please call at the delivery window for package." The door said he had nothing more to say. All are thus treated, and it is seldom you find an officer who is not supplied with circular correspondence of this kind.

Just let it be announced that the clerk of the school board is authorized to purchase a map for the "high school," and if he is not flooded with map circulars in less than a week, he will have at least a dozen traveling representatives of maps after him. And so it goes, no matter who, and yet it is pleasant to hold such preference when coming from a grateful people who expect much for nothing.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The board of education held an adjourned meeting last evening at the common council chamber, all the commissioners being present except Commissioner Bowles, President St. John in the chair.

The journal of the two last meetings read and approved.

The treasurer's report, showing monies received during the month to the amount of sixty-three dollars, and the balance on hand April 30th, $4,685.59. Received and paid.

The bids for furnishing supplies to the schools, were opened, and Superintendent H. W. Burton, and Clerk A. O. Wilson, were authorized to make a contract with Messrs. Sutherland & Sons.

Applications for positions as teachers in the public schools, were received from Misses Mary D. Davis, Nellie Harris and Marion Wiley, of this city, and Mr. Peter M. Scanlan, of Mt. Ida, Grant county, Wis., which were ordered placed on file with the clerk.

The committee on rules were granted further time to make out their report.

Commissioner Whiting moved that the board deem it expedient and for the better advancement of the schools to purchase certain books for supplementary reading. Adopted.

Commissioner Whiting moved that the clerk and Superintendent, R. W. Burton, be authorized to make such purchases, provided there is a sufficient sum accredited to the school fund, from which the purchases may be made. Adopted.

Superintendent H. W. Burton brought up the subject of teaching the German language in the high school room, which was dismissed at three o'clock.

Commissioner Miner moved that a committee be appointed, consisting of President St. John, and Commissioners Wilson and Whiting, who shall investigate the matter of teaching German in the high school, and report at future meeting of the board. Lost.

Commissioner Madden moved that the chair appoint a committee of three to report on the feasibility of introducing German into the high school, and report at a future meeting of the board. Adopted.

The chair appointed as that committee Commissioners Richardson, Bowles and Madden.

Commissioner Richardson moved that any insurance policies expiring, between the present time and the next regular meeting of the board, be renewed by the clerk in the same companies. Adopted.

On motion of Commissioner Whiting, the regular meeting night of the board was fixed at the first Friday evening in each month, at eight o'clock, during the next four months, and at half-past seven thereafter.

On motion of Commissioner Miner, the board adjourned.

THE CHORAL UNION.

A Good Step in the Right Direction.

Last week Thursday, Mr. L. A. Torrens, of Boston, held an interview with a number of music people in regard to the organization of a choral union in Janesville. This resulted in the appointment of a committee of ladies and gentlemen who called a meeting to be held at the Guards armory last evening. Between sixty and seventy persons were present. After doing some chorus work under Mr. Torrens' leadership, with Miss Fannie Gibbs, of Worcester, Massachusetts, as a companion, Mr. Torrens explained to the meeting the general character of the work he suggested might be done by a choral union. There seemed to be considerable interest taken in the work as it was unanimously agreed to organize a musical society which shall be designated as "The Janesville Choral Union."

Mr. H. F. Bliss was appointed temporary chairman and Mr. Clarence Clark secretary. When the motion was unanimously carried that the choral union be formed, Mr. William Bladen was elected president; Mrs. J. W. St. John, vice president; Mr. O. Wells Bay, treasurer; Mr. Clarence L. Clark, secretary, and Mr. Torrens, musical director.

A financial committee was appointed, consisting of N. Smith, M. G. Jeffers, James Burns, Mrs. A. P. Prichard and Miss Christine Peterson, which will report at the next meeting of the union, in regard to the membership fee and the weekly dues. The next meeting will be held on Tuesday evening, May 12, and the place of meeting, which has not yet been decided upon, will be duly announced.

The Janesville choral union has an auspicious beginning, and there is no doubt that it will be successful.

Pope's Springs.

Captain Alexander Baubolz is making extensive preparations for the accommodation of pleasure and picnic parties at his pleasant summer garden, known as Pope's Springs. He has laid out considerable money and labor in clearing up and otherwise improving the appearance of this popular place, which he will have in readiness as soon as the weather will permit. Captain Baubolz has refitted the little pleasure steamer Esterprize, which is now ready at his dock on North Main street, for the accommodation of parties who wish transportation up the river. He has also fitted up a convenient waiting room at the dock, a handsome fountain at the springs, and will have all the necessary for the accommodation of his patrons. Captain Baubolz will do all in his power to make the people happy at the springs, and hopes his efforts will be appreciated by the public.

The Weather.

At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer indicated 36 degrees above zero; clear, with north wind. At one o'clock, p. m., the register was 61.6 degrees above zero. Clear, with north wind. For the corresponding hours one year ago the register was 43 and 65 degrees above zero.
